

The Drilling Dream
A Warning to the Wise
12/15/2014

Last night I had a dream. I was coming out of an airport, leaving the building. There were many people leaving with me, some hurrying down the ramp that zigzagged to the street below. As I got down to the bottom, near the street level, I rounded the last corner of the ramp to see several, what looked like terrorists, masked men I believe, holding hostage many of the people who had rushed past me earlier. They were in a line, up against a wall, down on their knees, some had their hands in the air, with the terrorists behind them. The terrorists were giving them some kind of instructions. I slowly backed up to get out of sight, but evidently they saw me, because the next scene in the dream - I was with the people who were being held hostage.

The next thing I knew was that the terrorists had begun talking about releasing some of the hostages, and I remember seeing some of them smile with excitement. Yet, I knew that whatever they had planned, they were going to execute on those remaining. Just then, as I was up against the wall with my head pushed against it, my hands behind my back, the terrorist who was behind me started up what sounded like a drill. Just then, he put the drill to my head at the base of my neck and begun to drill into my skull. I remember distinctly how it felt, though I don't remember it being very painful. The nerves in my back begin to twitch as though I was hooked up to an electric shock machine.

As the drill bit, which was a circular bit that is used to cut the round holes in doors for the doorknob, slowly cut into the back of my head, I physically felt my hair falling. At that time, I remember I began praising Father, speaking to Him in praise and thanksgiving. As the drill bit cut deeper into my head, I knew what they were doing. They were going to implant something in the back of my head and the words I was speaking to Father would be the last words I would speak of my own accord. They were taking away my ability to think for myself.

Nearing the completion of the drilling, I remember my words and praises beginning to gradually deteriorate to an unrecognizable sound, as they started off clear, then slurred, then garbled and then nothing. It was like slowing down a record on a record player to a very slow speed. I remember how I felt, the tingling nerve endings and then, finally, I felt a weight fall off the back of my head, which was the piece of my skull that had been drilled out. I knew that they were going to implant something in its place and seal it up with something. I then awoke from my dream crying out, "NO"!

It took me awhile to fall back asleep because it jarred me so much. It was very real and vivid. After I got up in the morning, while in the bathroom, I was thinking of the dream. It came to me - the interpretation. "If my will was not totally 100% submitted to Him, then it will be taken away."

This confirms what I had said earlier in the past week that I had been fighting against the will of Abba. I knew in the dream, that once the terrorist finished his job, I would have no will left of my own and would only be a robot, a slave to do the bidding of the enemy. As my own words of praise and thanksgiving began to fade away, I knew it was the end of my own will.

This comes to me as a great warning. A message to Derek. A sobering message. Though I am not the man I used to be, I still struggle at times, battle at times in keeping hold of my own will, refusing to release it to the One who knows how to take complete care of me. Relinquishing control of our will and submitting it to the will of Father Elohim will be the dividing factor between those who will end up following falsehood, masked in “beautiful attire”, directly into the lake of fire and those who will follow the Truth into the eternal Kingdom of Messiah, prepared for those who love Him, Who is the Truth.

Deception begins with innocence and ends in destruction.

Mind control is simply a brainwashing, a re-education of the mind to persuade a person to do something that would normally be against their will to do.

There is an incredible amount of material and research done on mind control, and until we realize that it is real and destructive – we have already been deceived. The enemy is on a rampage, and the war he is waging is on the mind. His tactics are increasingly becoming more and more aggressive, yet slow and methodical has always been his approach.

If he can convince people that evil is innocent, pretty and good, then he has access to the most powerful weapon ever created – the human mind – the human will. Get it together folks – mind control is not some weird made up fantasy trick shown in re-runs of Star Trek, but something so subtle that if not careful, our arrogance and pride will cause us to believe that we, “the elect”, could never be tricked and persuaded to do something against our will. Messiah Himself gave the warning in Mark 13:22.

The human will is the most precious yet most powerful gift the Creator of the universe ever put inside mankind. The power of the suns rays, the force of the mighty oceans, the strength of an 8.0 earthquake, the destructive power of a hurricane, a tornado, a volcanic eruption or a tsunami, pales in light of the power of the human will. With it, through our words, we can even move mountains!

The human will is so powerful, that it even has the ability to overcome death. This is why Lucifer wants the power of the human will to use against Messiah and His people and he begins with innocent deception. Eve was deceived in the Garden by the serpent, and because of this, she passed on the “fruit” of her deception to the one whom she was closest with in all the world, the one she was one (echad) with, one in spirit and in flesh – her husband Adam. Deception doesn’t begin from the outside, but from the inside – inside circles of those whom we deem dear and precious – our own family.

If a parent does not know how to teach their children not to be deceived through education and awareness, then they are literally handing over their children to be sacrificed to the god of this world.

In the name of popularity, we allow our own children to eat the fruit of the defiled tree we were made to eat from when we were younger. Deception is believing that we can allow our children to eat from the same defiled tree we ate from yet not feel the effects of it, somehow hoping they turn out differently based upon societies definition of a “good parent”.

“Well, that’s not bad” or “that’s innocent, there’s nothing wrong with that”, is the typical excuse when we fail to realize the incredible responsibility of saying “NO”, I will not allow me or my children to be duped into the evil that passes off as a bowl of Cheerios, sweet, sugary, and “good” tasting.

Mind control is all around us. Through media, television, internet, movies, sports, religion, environmental infusion, advertising, education, pharmaceutical worship and much more, the human will is being cut out of people and implanted with the plans of the enemy for the utter destruction of mankind and the exaltation of the one who desires to sit in the place of “God” – the world ruler.

Face it – the terms, Illuminati, New World Order, Freemasonry, mind control, FEMA, “health benefits”, transgenics, trans-humanism are all terms that have been written off by many as a “fantasy language” used by those who, “poor little things”, cannot face reality - living in a world unto themselves because they cannot come to grips with their own loss of sanity. BOGUS, I say! It we are not to be deceived in the last days, which by the way are right now, we must realize that doing research on what the enemy has planned is the only way we will survive. Knowing the plan of the enemy is every bit as important as obeying the orders of the Commanding General.

Is it any concern of ours that one of the main head leaders of the Ezekiel 38 army, Moscow, has recently just placed the Lord of the Rings 'Eye of Sauron' on a 21 story skyscraper in order to keep an “eye” out over the city? <sup>1</sup> Or what about the good ole ‘innocent’ fantasy children’s movie, “Return to Oz”, released many years ago, that depicts young Dorothy who is subjected to the satanic world of trauma based mind control? Or what about the 30 seconds it takes of watching television that takes a mind that is completely focused and calm and turns it into one that is disoriented, unfocused and in utter chaos? Or what about repetitive music beats, chemical trails, Haarp, or sweet innocent cartoons?

Mind control that is used to take over the will of people is not a new invention. How do you think totalitarianism was made successful? Psychological warfare has been around since the Garden of Eden, and the enemy is still using it today to bring about his plan of destroying the Creator of the universe and His people. Indoctrination into the realm of Lucifer's belief that he could pull off something as ludicrous as taking down the Creator of the universe, begins with the successful techniques of convincing people that evil is good and good is evil. What better way to absorb people into the darkness than by repeating that darkness is light and light is darkness.

The process of losing our will to do the will of our enemy is not an overnight process. However, the end result of this process will be to accept the mark because we are convinced it is what "God" would want us to do to insure our children are provided for. I am convinced that people will be convinced to take the mark of the Beast out of the simple fact that it is the will of "God" to take it in order to survive and to protect their loved ones.

Most assuredly, I have not mentioned every method of mind control or tactic used by the enemy to get "God's" people to abandon Him and choose the "real" angel of light – No! However, the realness of the dream I had last night breathes great caution to my own life. It leaves me paralyzed to "think" that my ability to think can be taken away if my will is not 100% submitted to Him. It is my greatest fear to lose His presence and to be separated from Him. I hope this is your greatest fear as well.

We must REALLY know Him in our spirit, the one place the enemy has no access to and the one portal we have to the Almighty – keep it open – you will need to communicate with Him in this final hour.

If you say you believe in Messiah, yet there is no fruit as the result of the action of your belief in Messiah, then your belief alone will not save you (Ya'aqob [James] 2:14). In fact, read all of Ya'aqob chapter 2.

False Messiah's have already risen up, so do not look for only the one to come – who is the granddaddy of all false Messiahs. Just because something sounds good, looks good, tastes good or feels good, doesn't mean that it is rooted in the truth. If truth never moves past experiencing that one feel good moment a week in which we say, "wow, that was a good sermon", if it never becomes a part of who we are (our nature), then truth cannot save us.

If we are not one with truth then we are apart from truth.

The truth in which I speak is the commandments of Yahuweh Himself, based upon what He, Father, deems is good and righteous, for He cannot lie. Mankind lies. The serpent lies. Religion lies. Family lies. Yahuweh the Father and Messiah Yahushua the Son do NOT lie.

If we do not love His truth, even what we have will be cut out of us, so that what is exposed is the love and passion we have had all along for our "true" god, the serpent.

Take great heed, it is not a day to carry out the norm, but a day to fall down and repent of following a deceptive lie that says we deserve salvation based upon our own good works, and that the “God” we serve would never allow anything bad to happen to us or to our children.

Wake up! The enemy is lurking just around the corner, drill in hand, waiting to accomplish that which you may have already released him to do – take your will away.

Yahuweh has called us out of darkness and into His marvelous light. It’s time we answer that call, examining ourselves, shutting out all other voices that call us back to slavery. The goal of eternal salvation is to endure to the end and to do that, we must ensure the preservation of the ability to make our own decision to go forward, never stopping, until we see the light of His face, forever dwelling in the esteem of His might and presence.

With a sober spirit I deliver this message,

Derek
